SERVICE FACT SHEET | 11 NOVEMBER 2026

SDA / SDC parent-experience pathway

A school-aligned way to make parent information, practical guidance and appropriate first contacts easier to use.

Who it is for

SDA, SDC and parent association leaders

Intended value

Help parents feel informed, heard and prepared while keeping committee responsibilities manageable.

Available now

Free parent-experience review, mandate worksheet, decision brief and non-binding interest form.

Possible later scope

By agreement: a parent-priority summary, mandate map, approved communication plan, general support-route information, voluntary preparation prompts and a review template. Event or sponsorship work is a separate optional discussion.

Participation required

Committee mandate, school alignment, an accountable contact and a realistic limit on volunteer time.

DECISION POINT

Free resources and an initial enquiry do not purchase delivery. Review the boundaries, timing and terms on the next page.

Boundaries, timing and terms

SDA / SDC parent-experience pathway

Exclusions and boundaries

No committee case management, guaranteed funding or event revenue, unrestricted pupil access, or automatic right to private parent, learner or staff information.

Timing

Public tools are available now. The first activity and review point follow school approvals, capacity and an agreed timetable.

Price and terms

Registering interest is free. Later facilitation, materials, specialist services or event work may have separate charges, agreed in advance.

Availability

Zimbabwe-focused; remote, on-site or mixed arrangements depend on the agreed scope and delivery capacity.

Evidence

The resources and sample workflow show the intended process. They are not evidence of a delivered school project.

BEFORE COMMITMENT

Specific delivery responsibilities, provider suitability and any commercial terms are confirmed before an engagement. Registration does not approve school activity.
