SERVICE FACT SHEET | 11 NOVEMBER 2026

School Mental Wealth System

A coordinated approach to choosing a manageable school priority, preparing relevant people and clarifying appropriate support routes.

Who it is for

School heads, leadership teams and authorised school decision-makers

Intended value

Support learners, teaching staff and support staff through clearer responsibilities and practical preparation.

Available now

Free public planning resources, a school decision brief and a non-binding interest form.

Possible later scope

By agreement: a priority review, role and responsibility map, selected preparation materials, appropriate support-route information and a review plan. Activities, quantities and provider capacity are confirmed in the written scope.

Participation required

A named school lead, relevant staff voices, required approvals, agreed preparation time and a review point.

DECISION POINT

Free resources and an initial enquiry do not purchase delivery. Review the boundaries, timing and terms on the next page.

Boundaries, timing and terms

School Mental Wealth System

Exclusions and boundaries

No automatic school enrolment, clinical treatment, guaranteed grades or attendance, unlimited specialist access, or replacement of school safeguarding and employment responsibilities.

Timing

Resources are available now. Meetings, implementation dates and review periods are agreed for the actual scope; no fixed start date or 90-day package is advertised.

Price and terms

Registering interest is free. Any later scope, currency, fees, separate charges, payment and change terms are agreed before commitment.

Availability

Zimbabwe-focused; Founding 50 is a planned cohort. An enquiry does not reserve a place or confirm delivery.

Evidence

Public planning samples demonstrate the approach. No measured school or health result is claimed.

BEFORE COMMITMENT

Specific delivery responsibilities, provider suitability and any commercial terms are confirmed before an engagement. Registration does not approve school activity.
